

Faculty Development in Professionalism and Educational Research

March 26, 2010

University of TN Conference Center

Agenda

- 7:15 – 8:00 Breakfast
- 8:00 – 9:00 Plenary 1: Critical Components of Professionalism: A Behavioral Approach
Pamela Rowland, PhD
- 9:00 – 10:00 Plenary 2: Achieving Scholarship in Teaching and Education Work
Sheila Chauvin, PhD
- 10:00 – 10:15 Break
- 10:15 – 11:15 Workshop 1: Coaching Toward Excellence in Professionalism and Effective
Communication
Pamela Rowland, PhD
Workshop 2: Developing Educational Scholarship from Your Teaching and Educator
Work
Sheila Chauvin, PhD
- 11:15 – 12:15 Workshop 1: Coaching Toward Excellence in Professionalism and Effective
Communication
Pamela Rowland, PhD
Workshop 2: Developing Educational Scholarship from Your Teaching and Educator
Work
Sheila Chauvin, PhD
- 12:15 Whole Group Discussion and Lunch

Presenters:

Pamela A. Rowland, Ph.D.
Director, Office of Professional Development
Dartmouth Medical School
Hanover, NH

B.S., Education
University of Connecticut, 1973
M.S., Computer Science and Statistics, 1975
The Pennsylvania State University
Ph.D., Communication Studies, Computer Science, Statistics, 1982
University of Massachusetts

Sheila Chauvin, PhD
Professor of Medicine
Professor of Public Health
Director, OMERAD
LSU-HSC
New Orleans

BA Special Education and Elementary Education - 1975
Nicholls State University, Thibodaux LA
MED Curriculum and Instruction, Learning Disabilities
Emphasis - 1982; Nicholls State University, Thibodaux LA
PhD Educational Administration and Supervision - 1992
LSU